I bought Volume 1 for my daughter when she was in the hospital recently and she liked it so much, she asked me if I could order Volume 2. This gives me the impression that she likes these books very much. When she’s not reading them and I get a chance, I believe a read through may do me some good as well. It puts several categories (e.g. hope, stress, anxiety) in perspective and how to deal. By the way, I realize we are not supposed to write reviews in exchange for compensation, however if you get a minute to speak to a “Higher Power,” the beauty of nature, a new born child or even when watching news, which has not been very cheery, could you mention a stranger and her daughter truly thanks Our Lord very much and please continue to watch over her as she continues to fight the good fight so she may grow very old, stay very healthy and help everyone she can (and pay it forward.)
